SECOND JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND TIME FOR DISCLOSURE OF FINAL PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION REPORT

Now come Defendants John Duncan and Michelle Mangotti, by and through their respective counsel, and, pursuant to Rule 32(i) of the Southern District of Ohio Criminal Rules, hereby move this Court to extend the date for disclosure of the final presentence investigation report in this matter until January 31, 2005.

As background, Mr. Duncan and Ms. Mangotti pled guilty before this Court on June 28, 2004. Due to vacation schedules, the initial presentence report was delayed and this Court granted an extension of time to file the final presentence report until October 8, 2004, and set the sentencing hearing for October 15, 2004. The Court granted a second extension based upon a request for additional time to resolve objections, and to await the Supreme Court decision in United States v. Booker, No. 04-104 and United States v. Fanfan, No. 04-105. The Court granted a third extension upon the same grounds. The presentence investigation report is currently due for disclosure on December 30, 2004.

The Supreme Court has not, as of the date of this motion, rendered a decision in the above-referenced cases. Mr. Duncan and Ms. Mangotti submit that such decision may have a significant impact upon the sentencing in the present case. Additionally, Mr. Duncan has objections pending with the probation department that require more time to attempt to resolve. Therefore, in the interest of justice, Mr. Duncan and Ms. Mangotti request that this Court extend the deadline for the presentence investigation report until January 31, 2005.

Counsel for Ms. Mangotti has spoken with Amul Thapar, Assistant United States Attorney, and Laura Jensen, United States Probation Officer, and neither Mr. Thapar nor Ms. Jensen has any objection to this motion.

Wherefore Mr. Duncan and Ms. Mangotti respectfully request that this Court grant an extension of time until January 31, 2005 for disclosure of the final presentence investigation report to the Court.

Respectfully submitted,
